Sale Of Early Bird All-Session Passes To End On Friday

APPLETON (5/13/2015) – The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) announced that the sale of Early Bird All-Session Passes for its Division III Baseball Championship in Appleton ends on Friday (May 15).

The championship, which will be held May 22-27 at Neuroscience Group Field at Fox Cities Stadium, is an eight-team tournament. Four games will be held on May 22, 23 and 24 and as many as two games on May 25 and 26. If necessary, one game could be played on May 27.

Early Bird All-Session passes priced at $15 for adults and $10 for students and senior citizens are on sale. The cost is a savings of $18 and $10 off the regular price, respectively. Early Bird All-Session passes can be purchased by contacting the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers ticket office at (920) 733-4152. They can also be obtained by going to www.timberrattlers.com.

After May 15, the price of the all-session pass is $33 for adults and $20 for students and senior citizens. Daily tickets will be available at the stadium on each day of the tournament.

Lawrence University, University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and the Fox Cities Convention & Visitors Bureau are hosting the NCAA Division III Baseball Championship for the 16th straight year. Other major local sponsors are the Bergstrom Corporation, J. J. Keller Foundation, Inc., Panther Baseball Program, Radisson Paper Valley Hotel, and the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers.

Neuroscience Group Field at Fox Cities Stadium is serving as the venue of the finals for the 16th straight year. The facility is the home of the 2012 Midwest League champion Wisconsin Timber Rattlers, a Class A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers.

In the 2014 NCAA Division III Championship, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater defeated Emory University (Ga.), 7-0, in the title game.
