The Series

St. Norbert holds a 25-13-2 lead in the series that dates back to 1916. The Green Knights are currently on a 16-game winning streak against Lawrence. The Vikings haven't defeated St. Norbert since a 27-24 win back in 1997.

Last Meeting

St. Norbert used a solid defensive effort in the second half to hang on for a 17-6 victory over Lawrence on Oct. 19, 2013, at the Banta Bowl.

In a scheduling quirk, the game counted as a Midwest Conference game for the Green Knights, but it was a nonconference game for Lawrence.

St. Norbert limited Lawrence to only 88 yards of offense in the second half, and the Green Knights got a late field goal to seal the victory.

Zach Broberg ran 19 times for 86 yards to pace the Green Knights. Quarterback James Tringali was 13 of 27 passing for 177 yards, one touch-down and one interception. Brian Fliess caught six passes for 103 yards and a touchdown for St. Norbert.

Lawrence quarterback Luke Barthelmeß completed 16 of 26 passes for 190 yards for the Vikings. Dan Dubnicka had game highs with seven catches for 110 yards for Lawrence.

Sam Wagner was impressive on defense for the Vikings, who limited St. Norbert to 319 yards. Wagner had a game-high 14 tackles, including one sack and 4.0 tackles for loss. Dan Taylor picked up 10 tackles for Lawrence, and Trevor Spina recorded his first career interception.

Lawrence got on the board in the second quarter by taking advantage of a short punt. The 23-yard punt gave Lawrence the ball at the St. Norbert 41-yard line, and the Vikings got a key pass completion to Dubnicka at the St. Norbert 18. Sam Wagner then hauled in a pass at the St. Norbert one-yard line, and Dalton Sendelbach punched it in the end zone on the next play for a 6-0 lead.

St. Norbert answered two possessions later when Tringali hit Fliess with a 41-yard scoring pass, and the Green Knights led 7-6 at the half.

The Green Knights took the opening possession of the second half and moved 57 yards in eight plays for a touchdown. Broberg ran it in from three yards out, and St. Norbert led 14-6.

Lawrence only managed to get into St. Norbert territory twice in the second half, and the Green Knights

Trevor Spina

Last Week

Macalester scored 26 points in the first quarter and went on to a 33-0 Midwest Conference North Division win over Lawrence this past Saturday.

The Scots posted two touchdowns in their first four plays from scrimmage to take control.

Quarterback Samson Bialostok had two runs for 58 yards and a touchdown, and he completed 4-of-6 passes for 132 yards and two touchdowns.

Lawrence quarterback Tanner Schuh was 9-for-17 for 154 yards, and Chance Byrd was 8-for-16 for 58 yards. Cole Erickson grabbed six passes for 111 yards for the Vikings.

On the second play from scrimmage, Bialostok ran 57 yards for a touchdown to give the Scots a 7-0 lead. After three plays and a punt, Macalester took over at its own 31-yard line. Two plays later, Bialostok hit Garrett Eichhorn with a 64-yard scoring pass for a 14-0 lead.

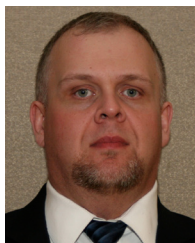

The Scots got a 31-yard field goal from Michael Abramson and a safety to go up 19-0. After the free kick, Bialostok completed a 25-yard touchdown pass to Ben Hillman three plays later to put the Scots up 26-0.

Macalester made it 33-0 on Ethan Carpenter's three-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter.

Lawrence had several good scoring chances but couldn't punch it in. The Vikings were stopped on downs at the Macalester 21 in the second quarter, and the Scots stopped Lawrence four times from their one-yard line in the third quarter.

The Coaches

Chris Harris (Cumberlands 2000) is serving as Lawrence's interim head coach. Steve Openorth (Winona State 2005) is in his first season at St. Norbert.

Vikings Update

►Lawrence tees it up for its second night game of the season in the Banta Bowl. That is a first for the Vikings, who have never played more than one night game in the Banta Bowl in a season. Lawrence's first night game of the season was a 59-0 nonconference win over Maranatha Baptist. The first night game Lawrence played in the Banta Bowl was against St. Norbert on Sept. 23, 2000. The Green Knights posted a 29-0 victory.

►One of the bright spots on offense in the loss at Macalester was freshman receiver Cole Erickson (Appleton, Wis./North). Erickson, who has impressed in prior games this season, hit season highs with six catches and 111 receiving yards. Erickson's highs this season had been three catches and 45 receiving yards. On the season, Erickson has 17 catches for 256 yards and three touchdowns.

Cole Erickson

►The top receiver for the Vikings continues to be senior Taylor Mandich (Green Bay, Wis./Southwest). He has 31 catches for 546 yards and five touchdowns. Mandich, who is averaging 17.6 yards per catch, ranks fifth at 78.0 receiving yards per game and seventh at 4.4 catches per game.

►Tanner Schuh (Appleton, Wis./North) saw the majority of the snaps at quarterback against Macalester and was 9-for-17 for 154 yards. On the season, Schuh is 51-for-111 for 631 yards, three touchdowns and four interceptions.

►Lawrence is now 11th in the Midwest Conference in scoring offense at 16.3 points per game. Lawrence ranks eighth in total offense at 300.4 yards per game.

►Senior safety Dan Taylor (Bridgeport, Calif./Lee Vining) hit a career high with 15 tackles against Macalester. Taylor broke his previous career high of 14, which he set at Knox earlier this season. On the campaign, Taylor is second on the team with 58 tackles, which ranks 11th in the conference. He also has 2.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks, one interception and five passes defended.

►Senior linebacker Brandon Taylor (Johnsburg, Ill./Johnsburg) picked up 13 tackles against Macalester and leads the team with 68 tackles. He ranks fifth in the league at 9.7 tackles

Green Knights Update

►St. Norbert used a strong third quarter to take control and pull away from Beloit in a 29-14 Midwest Conference North Division win at Schneider Stadium this past Saturday. The Green Knights led 7-0 at halftime but then piled up 136 yards of total offense with nine first downs in the third quarter to take a 20-0 lead. The Green Knights got two field goals of 40 and 25 yards from Randy Hill early in the fourth quarter to take a 26-0 lead.

►The Green Knights have a new head coach in Steve Opgenorth, a Green Bay native. Opgenorth came to St. Norbert from Colby College, where he served as the offensive coordinator. Opgenorth took over for Jim Purtill, who posted a record of 130-30 in 15 seasons with the Green Knights.

►Balance has been the norm for the St. Norbert offense this season. The Green Knights have three backs with more than 200 yards rushing. Zach Broberg is tops on the squad with 74 carries for 341 yards, an average of 4.6 yards per carry, and four touchdowns. Elijah Fort has 63 carries for 222 yards and two scores, and J.T. Crosby has 43 carries for 213 yards and a team-best five touchdowns.

►James Tringali has been the bulk of the time at quarterback, but Crosby has been quite a bit of action as well. Tringali is 85-for-141 passing for 845 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. Crosby is 13-for-36 for 200 yards, no touchdowns and four interceptions.

►Zach Reeves is the top receiver for the Green Knights and has 29 catches for 410 yards and three touchdowns, which is half of St. Norbert's receiving touchdowns for the season.

►St. Norbert controlled the ball for 36:21 against Beloit, and the Green Knights rank eighth in the league in time of possession at 30:03.

►St. Norbert ranks sixth in the conference in scoring offense at 21.3 points per game. The Green Knights are ninth in total offense at 290.6 yards per game.

►Senior linebacker Zach Klarkowski is the top tackler for the Green Knights. He has 72 tackles on the season and ranks third in the conference at 10.3 tackles per game.

►Senior defensive lineman Austin Prusha is tops on the squad at 4.5

2014 Game Recaps

September 6

Rockford 34, Lawrence 6

ROCKFORD, Ill.

— The Lawrence University football team dug itself a big hole early, and Rockford University pulled away late for a 34-6 nonconference victory at Sam Greeley Field.

The Regents (1-0) surged to a 19-0 lead just 11 minutes into the game, and Rockford then put up a pair of touchdowns in a 16-second span in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

Quarterback Andrew Stochl and receiver Milton Phillips did most of the damage for the Regents. Stochl completed 17-of-27 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns. Phillips caught five passes for 127 yards and a score.

Lawrence (0-1) struggled on offense and had just 234 total yards. Rockford rolled up 448 yards of offense.

After two touchdown passes from Stochl and a scoring run from Pete Berry put the Regents up early, Lawrence cut the deficit to 19-6. Freshman Alic Riedel blocked Cody Casazza's punt to give Lawrence the ball at the Rockford 21-yard line. Lawrence scored eight plays later on Tanner Schuh's two-yard run.

Lawrence was driving again in the final minutes of the first half, but Schuh was intercepted in the Rockford end zone to end the threat.

The score remained the same until Rockford drove 73 yards in eight plays midway through the fourth quarter. Stochl hit Dane Kirk with a 22-yard scoring pass for a 27-6 lead with 8:59 left.

On the next play from scrimmage, Pascal Sylla intercepted Lawrence backup quarterback Chance Byrd and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown and a 34-6 lead.

Schuh finished 10-of-29 passing for 103 yards. Byrd was 6-for-16 passing for 68 yards and two interceptions.

Byrd led the team with seven carries for 34 yards, and Dan Rothbauer, Taylor Mandich and Tyler Lueck all had four catches apiece for the Vikings.

September 13

Lawrence 59, Maranatha Baptist 0

APPLETON, Wis.

— The Lawrence University football team routed Maranatha Baptist University 59-0 in a nonconference game at the Banta Bowl.

Lawrence quarterback Tanner Schuh played only the first half but ran for 99 yards and a touchdown and threw for 244 and two touchdowns as the Vikings (1-1) bolted a 28-0 lead at the half. Backup quarterback Chance Byrd completed 11 of 15 passes for 152 yards and two touchdowns and ran 11 times for 46 yards and a score.

Taylor Mandich grabbed seven passes for 181 yards and three touchdowns, including a 70-yard scoring pass in the first half. Dalton Sendelbach added 14 carries for 89 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings. Lawrence kicker Patrick O'Mahoney also tied the school record of Cody Robel and Kraig Krueger with eight extra points.

The Lawrence defense, which held Maranatha to just 76 yards, recorded its first shutout since beating Ripon College 26-0 in 1991. It was a team effort on defense with Tony Harth leading the way with six tackles, including a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Lawrence limited Maranatha (0-2) to 20 carries for a minus-32 yards on the ground.

The Vikings also intercepted five passes, one each by Alic Riedel, Dan Taylor, Nick Ulloa, Jake Walker and defensive end Gabor Bukszar.

Lawrence scored touchdowns on its first three possessions and four of its first five. Trevor Spina had a four-yard run for the first touchdown, and Schuh scored from three yards out on the next drive for a 14-0 lead.

After Mandich had his 55-yard touchdown catch called back due to a penalty, he hooked up with Schuh on a 70-yard scoring pass on the next play for a 21-0 lead. Mandich then caught a 23-yard scoring pass with 4:51 left in the second quarter to put the Vikings up 28-0.

Lawrence got a 21-yard field goal from O'Mahoney to make it 31-0 midway through the third quarter. The Vikings then picked up touchdowns on four of their next five possessions to complete the scoring. Byrd connected with Cole Erickson on an 11-yard touchdown pass and then hit Mandich from 21 yards out to push the lead to 45-0 after three quarters. Byrd had a 19-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter, and Sendelbach finished the scoring with a 20-yard touchdown scamper.

The big bright spot for the Saber-cats was linebacker Ethan Kennon, who recorded 21 tackles, including 15 solo.

September 27

Knox 45, Lawrence 14

GALESBURG, Ill.

— The Knox College football team pulled out to a 35-0 lead at the half and went on to a 45-14 nonconference win over Lawrence University at the Knosher Bowl.

Knox (2-1) got two first-half touchdowns from Terry White and two more first-half scores from Matt McCaffrey to pull away. The Prairie Fire posted 502 yards of offense, including 345 on the ground.

Quarterback Chance Byrd ran for one touchdown and threw for another to pace Lawrence (1-2), which was limited to 226 yards of offense. Byrd had 11 carries for 50 yards and completed 8-of-16 passes for 127 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Trevor Spina had the biggest receiving day of his career with six catches for 109 yards and a touchdown for Lawrence.

The Vikings, who committed four turnovers, got on the board when Byrd connected with Spina on an 80-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter. Lawrence got its other score when Bryd ran 15 yards for a touchdown to complete a seven-play, 72-yard drive early in the fourth quarter.

Dan Taylor made 14 tackles and Zach Eichhorst had 11 to lead the Lawrence defense. Freshman Alic Riedel picked off his second pass of the season for Lawrence.

October 4

Grinnell 29, Lawrence 7

APPLETON, Wis. — The Lawrence University offense had trouble getting going on Saturday against Grinnell College, and the Pioneers went on to a 29-7 nonconference victory at the Banta Bowl.

Grinnell (1-3) limited Lawrence (1-3) to 181 yards of total offense, including 45 in the first half.

Sam Poulos tossed a pair of touchdown passes for the Pioneers, and Jacob Bernholtz ran 22 times for 102 yards and a touchdown. Lawrence quarterback Chance Byrd, who was forced into action after starter Tanner Schuh was hurt on the game's first drive, was 9-for-27 for 142 yards and a touchdown, but he threw four interceptions.

Grinnell got on the board late in the first quarter when the Pioneers moved 59 yards in 10 plays for the game's first touchdown. Jacob Meixler caught a 16-yard scoring pass from Poulos for a 7-0 lead. Meixler finished with six catches for 78 yards and two scores.

Linebacker David Ternes made 9-0 Grinnell when he tackled Bryd in the end zone with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter.

Graham Fisher then booted a 36-yard field goal for the Pioneers, and Bernholtz's one-yard touchdown plunge capped an 87-yard drive late in the first half to put the Pioneers up 19-0. Grinnell added a 27-yard Fisher field goal, and Meixler caught a 20-yard scoring pass in the third quarter for a 29-0 edge.

Lawrence finally got on the board with the help of a turnover. Grinnell's other quarterback, Harrison Hoegh was intercepted by Brandon Taylor at the Grinnell 31-yard line late in the third quarter. Byrd hit Cole Erickson, who made a beautiful catch on the play, on the next play from scrimmage for the touchdown.

Erickson finished with two catches for 45 yards.

October 11

Lawrence 21, Beloit 13

APPLETON, Wis. — Chance Byrd tossed three touchdown passes and Taylor Mandich had a career day as the Lawrence University football team topped Beloit College 21-13 in a Midwest Conference North Division game at the Banta Bowl.

Byrd, a freshman quarterback making his first start, was 23-for-36 for 274 yards and three touchdowns. Mandich, a senior receiver from Green Bay, had a career-high eight catches for 130 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings (2-3, 1-0 MWC North).

The Lawrence defense limited Beloit (2-3, 0-1) to 266 yards and made a key stop late in the game to preserve the victory. Linebacker Brandon Taylor paced the Lawrence defense with 14 tackles and two pass breakups.

Beloit was down by eight but got an interception on a tipped ball and took over at the Beloit 35-yard line with 5:30 left. After three consecutive runs by Mason Dixon, who had 31 carries for 132 yards, the Bucs were facing fourth-and-four. Evan Phillips' fourth-down pass was deflected away from receiver Michael Nolden by Taylor to give the ball back to Lawrence.

The Vikings then picked up a pair of first downs to run out the clock.

Beloit led 3-0 in the opening quarter, but Lawrence took the ensuing possession and moved 75 yards in 12 plays for the game's first touchdown. Byrd hit freshman receiver and Appleton native Cole Erickson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to complete the drive and give Lawrence a 7-3 lead.

The Vikings then put together another long scoring drive early in the second quarter. Lawrence went 80 yards in eight plays and Byrd found Trevor Spina with a 24-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Lawrence lead with 11:53 left in the first half.

Beloit kicker Kam Sallee connected on a 36-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 14-6.

Sallee then missed a 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, and Lawrence hit on a big play on the next drive. Mandich caught a 55-yard touchdown pass from Byrd, and Lawrence led 21-6 with 8:43 left in the game.

The Bucs marched right back down the field and Phillips found Sallee on a 12-yard scoring pass on fourth down to cut the margin to 21-13 with 6:45 remaining.

This was Lawrence's homecoming game, and marked the Vikings first victory at homecoming since a 17-13 win over Knox College in 2009.

October 18

Carroll 76, Lawrence 7

WAUKESHA, Wis. — The Carroll University football team pounded out 436 rushing yards en route to a 76-7 Midwest Conference North Division victory over Lawrence University at Schneider Stadium.

Lamont Williams ran eight times for 192 yards and three touchdowns to pace Carroll (6-0, 2-0 MWC). Williams scored on runs of 50, 55 and 70 yards. Bennett Kothe added 102 yards on 11 carries for the Pioneers.

Carroll also picked up a special teams touchdown when Nick Curtis blocked a punt and Dan Verhagen returned it 32 yards for a score. The Pioneers also got a defensive touchdown on Ryan Klapper's 42-yard interception return.

Carroll quarterback Kyle Burlingame threw only nine passes, completing seven for 88 yards and a touchdown.

Lawrence's lone score came early in the fourth quarter when Taylor Mandich grabbed a 24-yard touchdown pass from Tanner Schuh.

Schuh completed 12-of-30 passes for 114 yards and one interception for the Vikings (2-4, 1-1). Mandich caught four passes for 66 yards.

October 25

Macalester 33, Lawrence 0

ST. PAUL, Minn.

— The Macalester College football team scored 26 points in the first quarter and went on to a 33-0 Midwest Conference North Division win over Lawrence University.

The Scots (6-1, 3-0 MWC North) posted two touchdowns in their first four plays from scrimmage to take control.

Quarterback Samson Bialostok had two runs for 58 yards and a touchdown, and he completed 4-of-6 passes for 132 yards and two touchdowns.

Lawrence quarterback Tanner Schuh was 9-for-17 for 154 yards, and Chance Byrd was 8-for-16 for 58 yards. Cole Erickson grabbed six passes for 111 yards for the Vikings (2-5, 1-2).

On the second play from scrimmage, Bialostok ran 57 yards for a touchdown to give the Scots a 7-0 lead. After three plays and a punt, Macalester took over at its own 31-yard line. Two plays later, Bialostok hit Garrett Eichhorn with a 64-yard scoring pass for a 14-0 lead.

The Scots got a 31-yard field goal from Michael Abramson and a safety to go up 19-0. After the free kick, Bialostok completed a 25-yard touchdown pass to Ben Hillman three plays later to put the Scots up 26-0.

Macalester made it 33-0 on Ethan Carpenter's three-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter.

Lawrence had several good scoring chances but couldn't punch it in. The Vikings were stopped on downs at the Macalester 21 in the second quarter, and the Scots stopped Lawrence four times from their one-yard line in the third quarter.
