Last Game

Lawrence finished the 2013 season with a 48-28 loss at Ripon.

Ripon jumped out to a 21-point halftime lead and went on to the Midwest Conference win in the 113th game in the state's oldest college football rivalry.

With the win, Ripon retained possession of the Doehling-Heselton Memorial Trophy.

Quarterback Stephen Covalt led Ripon by running 27 times for 107 yards and a touchdown. Amazingly, Covalt fumbled seven times on the afternoon, but only lost one fumble to the Lawrence defense. Eric Langman added 95 yards on seven carries and he scored twice for the Red Hawks. Covalt completed 8 of 12 passes for 108 yards and two touchdowns.

Lawrence quarterback Luke Barthelmess completed 14 of 37 passes for 285 yards and three touchdowns. Barthelmess also ran 16 times for 110 yards.

Barthelmess finished a stellar career as the most prolific passer in Lawrence history. Barthelmess' 285 passing yards on the afternoon moved him past former Monmouth College star Rob Purlee (8,017) into fourth place in Midwest Conference history with 8,190 yards. Barthelmess now has 62 career touchdown passes and that ranks seventh in conference history. He moved past former Ripon star Brock Bauer (61) and is tied with former Illinois College standout Pete Jennings.

Defensive back/wide receiver

Sam Wagner had a huge day for the Vikings. On defense, he recorded a game-high 12 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. On offense, Wagner caught three passes for 119 yards, and included in that total was a 64-yard touchdown catch.

Ripon led 14-0 in the first quarter when Barthelmess connected with Wagner on the 64-yard scoring pass to cut the margin in half. Ripon then got two touchdown passes from Covalt in the second quarter to stretch the margin to 28-7 at the half.

Lawrence trimmed the lead to 28-14 when Barthelmess hit Tyler Lueck with a five-yard touchdown pass on the opening drive of the third quarter. Ripon countered by scoring the game's next three touchdowns to seal the victory.

Lawrence got a one-yard touchdown run from Isaac Barthelmess and a two-yard touchdown pass from Luke Barthelmess to Dan Dubnicka to finish the scoring.

Vikings Update

►Lawrence embarks a new chapter in its football history with the 2014 season. This fall marks the entry of Macalester College into the Midwest Conference for football only. With the addition of Macalester, the league has been split into divisions for the first time since 1997. The North Division consists of Lawrence, Beloit, Carroll, Macalester, Ripon and St. Norbert. The South Division is Cornell, Grinnell, Illinois College, Knox, Lake Forest and Monmouth.

►The division winners will meet in the final week of the season in the MWC Championship Game, which will be hosted by the South Division winner in 2014. The second-place teams will play for third place, the third-place teams will play for fifth place and so on down the line.

►This format may be short-lived since Carroll has already announced its intention to leave the MWC for the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin starting in the fall of 2016.

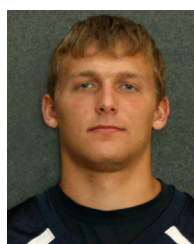

►One of the big changes for the Vikings this season will be at quarterback where sophomore Tanner Schuh (Appleton, Wis./North) takes over for record-setting QB Luke Barthelmess. Schuh saw limited action as a freshman and was 8-of-21 passing for 80 yards.

►The Vikings do return junior running back Dalton Sendelbach (Evansville, Wis./Evansville), who is the top returning rusher. Sendelbach carried 87 times for 291 yards, an average of 3.3 yards per carry.

►Despite losing receivers Dan Dubnicka and Sam Wagner to graduation, the Vikings bring back a trio of top pass-catchers in Tyler Lueck (Glen Ellyn, Ill./Glenbard East), Trevor Spina

Lueck had 31 catches for 214 yards and two touchdowns last season, and Spina had 22 catches for 247 yards and one touchdown. Getting the tall, athletic Mandich back is a huge boost to Lawrence's receiving corps.

►Lawrence also brings three starters back on the offensive line. Standout senior tackles Spencer Swick (Kimberly, Wis./Kimberly) and Luke Zablocki (Pulaski, Wis./Pulaski) are joined by junior center Patrick Pierson (Oconomowoc, Wis./Milwaukee Marquette).

►Lawrence finished the 2013 season ranked fifth in the Midwest Conference in total offense at 359.4 yards per game. The Vikings were 10th in scoring offense at 15.3 points per contest.

►One of the big changes to Lawrence's offense is the move of sophomore Isaac Barthelmess (Appleton, Wis./North) to defense. After playing running back as a freshman and leading the team in touchdowns, Barthelmess has made the switch to linebacker.

►The Vikings do return three senior starters on defense, one at each level of the defense. Fifth-year senior Gabor Bukszar (Naples, Fla./Gulf Coast) is back at defensive end, Bran-

Isaac Barthelmess on a 17-yard touchdown pass on the game's final play to lift the Vikings to a dramatic 23-20 Midwest Conference victory over Knox College in the Banta Bowl.

The touchdown pass capped a 69-yard drive in the final 49 seconds and was the 59th of Luke Barthelmess' career, which ties him with All-American Jim Petran for the Lawrence record.

Lawrence (1-8, 1-7 MWC) was staring at a three-point deficit after Derek Mortensen finished an 11-play, 83-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run that gave Knox (1-8, 1-7) a 20-17 lead with just 57 seconds left.

The Vikings took over at their own 31-yard line with 49 seconds left, and Luke Barthelmess hit Sam Wagner with a 13-yard pass. The Lawrence quarterback then really took advantage of what the Knox defense was giving him.

With the Prairie Fire focusing on Wagner, Luke Barthelmess completed three consecutive passes to freshman Trevor Spina along the sideline and he stepped out of bounds to stop the clock each time. Spina caught a 16-yarder to the Knox 40, then caught a 13-yarder to the Knox 27 and grabbed a 10-yarder to the Knox 17 with just three seconds left.

After both teams used their final timeouts, Luke Barthelmess dropped back to pass and scrambled to his right. He threw to his brother Isaac, a freshman running back, near the corner of the end zone for the touchdown with no time on the clock.

Luke Barthelmess completed 30 of 47 passes for 312 yards and two touchdowns. Luke Barthelmess also ran 12 times for 81 yard and a touchdown. Dan Dubnicka caught eight passes for 98 yards to lead the Vikings, and Spina and John Doran both had six catches for 68 and 58 yards, respectively.

Mortensen had a huge game for the Prairie Fire as he carried 42 times for 246 yards and three touchdowns. Knox quarterback Luke Osterbaan was 8 of 19 passing for 96 yards.

Knox grabbed the early lead when it converted after a Luke Barthelmess interception. Will Ruzicka intercepted at the Lawrence 36 and returned it to the 21-yard line. Mortensen ran it in from 14 yards out two plays later, and Knox led 7-0.

Lawrence came up with a turnover of its own when it stopped Mortensen on fourth-and-one at the Lawrence 36 on Knox's next possession. Two plays later, Luke Barthelmess hit Dubnicka with a 41-yard pass to the Knox 15. He connected with Spina on the next play for the touchdown and the score was tied 7-7.

Zach Eichhorst then intercepted Oosterbaan on the next drive and returned it 13 yards to the Knox 12. The Vikings couldn't punch it in, but freshman kicker Pat O'Mahoney converted a 30-yard field goal, the first of his career, and Lawrence led 10-7.

Lawrence stretched the lead to 17-7 in the third quarter. The Vikings marched 61 yards in nine plays for a touchdown. Luke Barthelmess finished the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run with 5:05 left in the third.

Knox trimmed the lead to 17-14 with the help of another Ruzicka interception. Taking over at their own 43, the Prairie Fire got a 30-yard run from Mortensen, and he then scored two plays later on a 27-yard run.

2013 Game Recaps

Knox looked like it was going to take the lead midway through the fourth quarter when it drove all way to the Lawrence two-yard line. Facing fourth-and-goal from the two, Knox handed the ball to Mortensen, who was tackled for a loss by Wagner.

Wagner led the Lawrence defense with 13 tackles, including 10 solo and 2.0 tackles for loss. Brandon Taylor picked up 12 tackles, including nine solo, and Dan Taylor had nine stops for the Vikings.
