The Series

Carroll holds a 32-26-4 lead over Lawrence in a series that dates back to 1908. The Pioneers have won the last six meetings, and Lawrence's last victory was a 27-14 win back in 2007.

Last Meeting

Carroll pulled out to a big early lead and went on to a 48-14 Midwest Conference victory over Lawrence on Oct. 12, 2013, at Schneider Stadium.

Carroll led 13-0 after the first quarter and scored four second-quarter touchdowns to race to a 41-0 lead at the half.

Running back Lamont Williams powered the Carroll offense by running 19 times for 216 yards and four touchdowns. Williams, who had touchdown runs of 10, one, 83 and 12 yards, averaged 11.4 yards per carry.

The Pioneers threw only nine passes in the game as they ran for 314 yards as a team.

Lawrence was limited to only 235 yards against a stout Carroll defense. Quarterback Luke Barthelmess was 8 of 16 passing for 81 yards and a touchdown. Halfback Dalton Sendelbach ran 24 times for 94 yards to lead Lawrence's ground game.

After Williams put the Pioneers up 27-0 with his 83-yard touchdown run in the late in the second quarter, Ty Zimmerman blocked a punt and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. Williams then added another touchdown run to put the Pioneers in command at the break.

Lawrence got on the board with cornerback Zach Eichhorst's first career touchdown. The sophomore picked off Tyler Schovanec's pass and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 48-7.

Lawrence added its final touchdown midway through the fourth quarter when Barthelmess capped a 14-play, 68-yard drive with a 13-yard scoring pass to Dan Dubnicka. Dubnicka finished with three catches for 35 yards.

Last Week

Chance Byrd tossed three touchdown passes Saturday and Taylor Mandich had a career day as Lawrence topped Beloit 21-13 in a Midwest Conference North Division game at the Banta Bowl.

Byrd, a freshman quarterback making his first start, was 23-for-36 for 274 yards and three touchdowns. Mandich, a senior receiver from Green Bay, had a career-high eight catches for 130 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings.

The Lawrence defense limited Beloit to 266 yards and made a key stop late in the game to preserve the victory. Linebacker Brandon Taylor paced the Lawrence defense with 14 tackles and two pass breakups.

Beloit was down by eight but got an interception on a tipped ball and took over at the Beloit 35-yard line with 5:30 left. After three consecutive runs by Mason Dixon, who had 31 carries for 132 yards, the Bucs were facing fourth-and-four. Evan Phillips' fourth-down pass was deflected away from receiver Michael Nolden by Taylor to give the ball back to Lawrence.

The Vikings then picked up a pair of first downs to run out the clock.

Beloit led 3-0 in the opening quarter, but Lawrence took the ensuing possession and moved 75 yards in 12 plays for the game's first touchdown. Byrd hit freshman receiver and Appleton native Cole Erickson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to complete the drive and give Lawrence a 7-3 lead.

The Vikings then put together another long scoring drive early in the second quarter. Lawrence went 80 yards in eight plays and Byrd found Trevor Spina with a 24-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Lawrence lead with 11:53 left in the first half.

Beloit kicker Kam Sallee connected on a 36-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 14-6.

Sallee then missed a 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, and Lawrence hit on a big play on the next drive. Mandich caught a 55-yard touchdown pass from Byrd, and Lawrence led 21-6 with 8:43 left in the game.

The Bucs marched right back down the field and Phillips found Sallee on a 12-yard scoring pass on fourth down to cut the margin to 21-13 with 6:45 remaining.

Vikings Update

►The 21-13 victory over Beloit came in Lawrence's homecoming game (the administration at LU calls it Fall Festival). It was Lawrence's first homecoming victory since a 17-13 win over Knox College in 2009.

►Freshman quarterback Chance Byrd (Lincoln, Ala./Lincoln) was successful in his debut as the starter with the win over Beloit. The last Lawrence quarterback to win his first start was Luke Barthelmeß, who was at the controls when the Vikings beat Knox 33-12 on Sept. 11, 2010. Byrd was 23-of-36 passing for 274 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. On the season, Byrd is 57-of-110 for 763 yards, seven touchdowns and eight interceptions.

►Senior receiver Taylor Mandich (Green Bay, Wis./Southwest) had a monster game in the victory over Beloit. Mandich grabbed a career-high eight catches for 130 yards and caught the game-winning touchdown pass. Mandich now ranks fifth in the Midwest Conference with 84.6 receiving yards per game. He is sixth in the league at 4.6 catches per game. Mandich's totals are 23 catches for 423 yards and four touchdowns. He leads Lawrence in all three categories.

►The Vikings did a great job of closing out Saturday's win over Beloit. Lawrence got the ball back with 3:38 remaining, but Beloit had a pair of timeouts left so Lawrence needed a first down. Facing third-and-five at the Beloit 36, Byrd completed a clutch pass to Mandich for 14 yards and a first down. Byrd and Dalton Sendelbach (Evansville, Wis./Evansville) then ripped off runs of nine and seven yards, respectively, to seal the win.

►Byrd completed a pass to six different receivers in the victory.

►Lawrence's freshmen receivers continue to contribute on a weekly basis. Appleton natives Dan Rothbauer (Appleton, Wis./North) and Cole Erickson (Appleton, Wis./North) have combined for 22 catches for 244 yards and three touchdowns.

►The Vikings played without starting left tackle Spencer Swick (Kimberly, Wis./Kimberly) for the second consecutive week. Sophomore Jackson

Lawrence 21, Beloit 13

APPLETON, Wis. — Chance Byrd tossed three touchdown passes and Taylor Manmandich had a career day as the Lawrence University football team topped Beloit College 21-13 in a Midwest Conference North Division game at the Banta Bowl.

Byrd, a freshman quarterback making his first start, was 23-for-36 for 274 yards and three touchdowns. Mandich, a senior receiver from Green Bay, had a career-high eight catches for 130 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings (2-3, 1-0 MWC North).

The Lawrence defense limited Beloit (2-3, 0-1) to 266 yards and made a key stop late in the game to preserve the victory. Linebacker Brandon Taylor paced the Lawrence defense with 14 tackles and two pass breakups.

Beloit was down by eight but got an interception on a tipped ball and took over at the Beloit 35-yard line with 5:30 left. After three consecutive runs by Mason Dixon, who had 31 carries for 132 yards, the Bucs were facing fourth-and-four. Evan Phillips' fourth-down pass was deflected away from receiver Michael Nolden by Taylor to give the ball back to Lawrence.

The Vikings then picked up a pair of first downs to run out the clock.

Beloit led 3-0 in the opening quarter, but Lawrence took the ensuing possession and moved 75 yards in 12 plays for the game's first touchdown. Byrd hit freshman receiver and Appleton native Cole Erickson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to complete the drive and give Lawrence a 7-3 lead.

The Vikings then put together another long scoring drive early in the second quarter. Lawrence went 80 yards in eight plays and Byrd found Trevor Spina with a 24-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Lawrence lead with 11:53 left in the first half.

Beloit kicker Kam Sallee connected on a 36-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 14-6.

Sallee then missed a 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, and Lawrence hit on a big play on the next drive. Mandich caught a 55-yard touchdown pass from Byrd, and Lawrence led 21-6 with 8:43 left in the game.

The Bucs marched right back down the field and Phillips found Sallee on a 12-yard scoring pass on fourth down to cut the margin to 21-13 with 6:45 remaining.

This was Lawrence's homecoming game, and marked the Vikings first victory at homecoming since a 17-13 win over Knox College in 2009.
