The Series

Due to its win earlier this season, Grinnell has a 28-27-0 lead in the series that dates back to 1940. The Pioneers have won two straight in the series and seven of the last eight. Lawrence's last win was a 24-14 victory back in 2012.

Last Meeting

The Lawrence offense had trouble getting going on Oct. 4 against Grinnell, and the Pioneers went on to a 29-7 nonconference victory at the Banta Bowl.

Grinnell limited Lawrence to 181 yards of total offense, including 45 in the first half.

Sam Poulos tossed a pair of touchdown passes for the Pioneers, and Jacob Bernholtz ran 22 times for 102 yards and a touchdown. Lawrence quarterback Chance Byrd, who was forced into action after starter Tanner Schuh was hurt on the game's first drive, was 9-for-27 for 142 yards and a touchdown, but he threw four interceptions.

Grinnell got on the board late in the first quarter when the Pioneers moved 59 yards in 10 plays for the game's first touchdown. Jacob Meixler caught a 16-yard scoring pass from Poulos for a 7-0 lead. Meixler finished with six catches for 78 yards and two scores.

Linebacker David Ternes made 9-0 Grinnell when he tackled Bryd in the end zone with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter.

Graham Fisher then booted a 36-yard field goal for the Pioneers, and Bernholtz's one-yard touchdown plunge capped an 87-yard drive late in the first half to put the Pioneers up 19-0. Grinnell added a 27-yard Fisher field goal, and Meixler caught a 20-yard scoring pass in the third quarter for a 29-0 edge.

Lawrence finally got on the board with the help of a turnover. Grinnell's other quarterback, Harrison Hoegh was intercepted by Brandon Taylor at the Grinnell 31-yard line late in the third quarter. Byrd hit Cole Erickson, who made a beautiful catch on the play, on the next play from scrimmage for the touchdown.

Erickson finished with two catches for 45 yards.

Last Week

Ripon piled up more than 500 yards on the ground en route to a 47-7 Midwest Conference North Division win over Lawrence at Ingalls Field this past Saturday.

South Division winner Illinois College in the title game. The teams through the standings will play for their place in the conference. The second-place teams will play for third, the third-place teams play for fifth place and so on down the line. Lawrence and Grinnell face each other for ninth place.

► This is the first time in a long time that Lawrence has played the same opponent twice in the same season. Lawrence faced Grinnell in week four when the Pioneers defeated Lawrence 29-7 in the Banta Bowl. Lawrence hasn't played the same team twice in a season since the Vikings faced Ripon twice in the 1945 season. The teams split the two games back in the fall of 1945.

► Lawrence is 12th in the Midwest

Conference in scoring offense at 13.4 points per game. Lawrence ranks ninth in total offense at 292.8 yards per game.

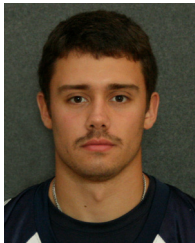

► Freshman Chance Byrd (Lincoln, Ala./Lincoln) hit season highs for attempts (44), completions (23) and passing yards (279) in the game at Ripon last Saturday. Byrd also completed 23 passes in Lawrence's win over Beloit earlier this season. Byrd is now 101-for-204 (49.5 percent) passing for 1,215 yards, seven touchdowns and 13 interceptions.

Chance Byrd

► Lawrence had 349 yards of offense at Ripon and moved the ball consistently, but three interceptions stymied the Vikings as turnovers took place at the Ripon 48, 1 and 47. Lawrence also lost the ball on downs at the Ripon 19, 18 and 41.

► Senior Taylor Mandich (Green Bay, Wis./Southwest) is the top receiver for the Vikings. Mandich leads the team with 39 catches for 652 yards and five touchdowns after catching six balls for 69 yards at Ripon. Mandich ranks fourth in the league at 72.4 receiving yards per game and is sixth at 4.3 catches per contest.

Taylor Mandich

► Sophomore receiver Trevor Spina (Henderson, Nev./Coronado) matched his career high when he caught seven passes at Ripon. Spina, who has 31 catches for 368 yards and two touchdowns this season, also caught seven passes vs. Lake Forest in 2013.

► Senior linebacker Brandon Taylor (Johnsburg, Ill./Johnsburg) would need a career game at Grinnell if he wants to reach the 100-tackle plateau on the season. Taylor enters the game leading the Vikings with 86 tackles and has averaged 10.7 tackles over the past seven games. Taylor ranks fourth in the Midwest Conference at 9.6 tackles per game. If Taylor gets 14 tackles against Grinnell, which would be one short of tying his career high, he would be the first Lawrence player to record 100 tackles in a season since 2003. Safety Jacques Hacquebord had had 112 tackles and linebacker Scott Caroen recorded 104 in 2003.

Brandon Taylor

Riedel leads the team with three interceptions and eight pass breakups for a team-best 11 passes defended. Riedel also has 28 tackles.
