The Series

Lawrence holds a 36-21-2 edge over the Prairie Fire in a series that dates back to 1935. Lawrence has won eight of the last 11 meetings against Knox.

Last Meeting

Lawrence quarterback Luke Barthelmess found Isaac Barthelmess on a 17-yard touchdown pass on the game's final play on Nov. 9, 2013, to lift the Vikings to a dramatic 23-20 Midwest Conference victory over Knox in the Banta Bowl.

The touchdown pass capped a 69-yard drive in the final 49 seconds and was the 59th of Luke Barthelmess' career, which tied him with All-American Jim Petran for the Lawrence record.

Lawrence was staring at a three-point deficit after Derek Mortensen finished an 11-play, 83-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run that gave Knox a 20-17 lead with just 57 seconds left.

The Vikings took over at their own 31-yard line with 49 seconds left, and Luke Barthelmess hit Sam Wagner with a 13-yard pass. The Lawrence quarterback then really took advantage of what the Knox defense was giving him.

With the Prairie Fire focusing on Wagner, Luke Barthelmess completed three consecutive passes to freshman Trevor Spina along the sideline and he stepped out of bounds to stop the clock each time. Spina caught a 16-yarder to the Knox 40, then caught a 13-yarder to the Knox 27 and grabbed a 10-yarder to the Knox 17 with just three seconds left.

After both teams used their final timeouts, Luke Barthelmess dropped back to pass and scrambled to his right. He threw to his brother, Isaac, near the corner of the end zone for the touchdown with no time on the clock.

Luke Barthelmess completed 30 of 47 passes for 312 yards and two touchdowns. Luke Barthelmess also ran 12 times for 81 yard and a touchdown. Dan Dubnicka caught eight passes for 98 yards to lead the Vikings, and Spina and John Doran both had six catches for 68 and 58 yards, respectively.

Mortensen had a huge game for the Prairie Fire as he carried 42 times for 246 yards and three touchdowns. Knox quarterback Luke Osterbaan was 8 of 19 passing for 96 yards.

Knox grabbed the early lead when it converted after a Luke Barthelmess interception. Will Ruzicka intercepted at the Lawrence 36 and returned it to the 21-yard line. Mortensen ran it in from 14 yards out two plays later, and Knox led 7-0.

Lawrence came up with a turnover of its own when it stopped Mortensen on fourth-and-one at the Lawrence 36 on Knox's next possession. Two plays later, Luke Barthelmess hit Dubnicka with a 41-yard pass to the Knox 15. He connected with Spina on the next play for the touchdown and the score was tied 7-7.

Zach Eichhorst then intercepted Oosterbaan on the next drive and returned it 13 yards to the Knox 12. The Vikings couldn't punch it in, but freshman kicker Pat O'Mahoney converted a 30-yard field goal, the first of his career, and Lawrence led 10-7.

Lawrence stretched the lead to 17-7 in the third quarter. The Vikings marched 61 yards in nine plays for a touchdown. Luke Barthelmess finished the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run with 5:05 left in the third.

Knox trimmed the lead to 17-14 with the help of another Ruzicka interception. Taking over at their own 43, the Prairie Fire got a 30-yard run from Mortensen, and he then scored two plays later on a 27-yard run.

Knox looked like it was going to take the lead midway through the fourth quarter when it drove all way to the Lawrence two-yard line. Facing fourth-and-goal from the two, Knox handed the ball to Mortensen, who was tackled for a loss by Wagner.

Wagner led the Lawrence defense with 13 tackles, including 10 solo and 2.0 tackles for loss. Brandon Taylor picked up 12 tackles, including nine solo, and Dan Taylor had nine stops for the Vikings.

Last Week

Lawrence routed Maranatha Baptist 59-0 on Sept. 13 in a nonconference game at the Banta Bowl.

Lawrence quarterback Tanner Schuh played only the first half but ran for 99 yards and a touchdown and threw for 244 and two touchdowns as the Vikings bolted a 28-0 lead at the half. Backup quarterback Chance Byrd completed 11 of 15 passes for 152 yards and two touchdowns and ran 11 times for 46 yards and a score.

Taylor Mandich grabbed seven passes for 181 yards and three touchdowns, including a 70-yard scoring pass in the first half. Dalton Sendelbach added 14 carries for 89 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings.

Lawrence kicker Patrick O'Mahoney also tied the school record of Cody Robel and Kraig Krueger with eight extra points.

The Lawrence defense, which held Maranatha to just 76 yards, recorded its first shutout since beating Ripon College 26-0 in 1991. It was a team effort on defense with Tony Harth leading the way with six tackles, including a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Lawrence limited Maranatha to 20 carries for a minus-32 yards on the ground.

The Vikings also intercepted five passes, one each by Alic Riedel, Dan Taylor, Nick Ulloa, Jake Walker and defensive end Gabor Bukszar.

Lawrence scored touchdowns on its first three possessions and four of its first five. Trevor Spina had a four-yard run for the first touchdown, and Schuh scored from three yards out on the next drive for a 14-0 lead.

After Mandich had his 55-yard touchdown catch called back due to a penalty, he hooked up with Schuh on a 70-yard scoring pass on the next play for a 21-0 lead. Mandich then caught a 23-yard scoring pass with 4:51 left in the second quarter to put the Vikings up 28-0.

Lawrence got a 21-yard field goal from O'Mahoney to make it 31-0 midway through the third quarter. The Vikings then picked up touchdowns on four of their next five possessions to complete the scoring. Byrd connected with Cole Erickson on an 11-yard touchdown pass and then hit Mandich from 21 yards out to push the lead to 45-0 after three quarters. Byrd had a 19-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter, and Sendelbach finished the scoring with a 20-yard touchdown scamper.

The Coaches

Chris Harris (Cumberlands 2000) is serving as Lawrence's interim head coach. Damon Tommeo (Pomona-Pitzer 1999) is in his second season at Knox and has a record of 2-10 (.167). He is in his fifth season overall with a record of 16-40 (.286).

teams. Now that the conference has been split into divisions, teams will cross into the other division to play nonconference games. Lawrence faces Knox and then hosts Grinnell next week to complete its nonconference schedule. The Vikings start North Division play when they host Beloit on Oct. 11.

►Interim head coach Chris Harris joined some elite company with a victory in his Lawrence coaching debut. The last Lawrence coach to win his first game was the legendary Ron Roberts, whose 1965 team defeated Carleton 35-7 in his first contest. Roberts also won his debut in the first-ever game in the Banta Bowl the following week. That was a 26-21 victory over St. Olaf. The last coach to win his home debut was Chris Howard, whose 2005 team defeated Carroll 38-36.

►Lawrence's 59-0 win over Maranatha was the first shutout by the Vikings since a 26-0 win at Ripon on Nov. 2, 1991, on a bitterly cold afternoon in the final game for coach Rich Agness. It was the first shutout in the Banta Bowl since the Vikings beat Beloit 7-0 in overtime on Oct. 25, 1986, a season that ended in a Midwest Conference championship for Lawrence.

►The 59-point margin of victory is one of the largest in Lawrence football history. In the modern era (since 1940), it is the second-largest margin of victory. The only win that was bigger was a 62-0 drubbing of Ripon back in 1953. Overall, it's the eighth-largest margin of victory.

►Maranatha simply couldn't run the ball against the Vikings, and Lawrence held the Sabercats to minus-32 yards on 20 carries. Lawrence had 3.0 sacks and that accounted for 32 yards in loss. This is the lowest rushing total for an opponent in quite some time. The second-lowest total was two yards, which is all Lake Forest got against the Lawrence defense on Oct. 10, 2009.

►Defensive end Tony Harth (Madison, Wis./West) made a team-high six tackles against Maranatha and leads the team with 14 tackles on the season. Harth also had a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss and picked up his first career sack against Maranatha.

Tony Harth

►The defense also intercepted five passes against Maranatha with Alic Riedel (Appleton, Wis./East), Dan Taylor (Bridgeport, Calif./Lee Vining), Nick Ulloa (Burlington, Wis./Catholic Central), Jake Walker (Bark River, Mich./Escanaba) and defensive end Gabor Bukszar (Naples, Fla./Gulf Coast) all picking off passes. It was the first career interception for Riedel, Walker and Bukszar.

►The five interceptions is the most by the Vikings since Lawrence picked off five passes in a 22-18 victory over Illinois College in the Banta Bowl on Sept. 29, 2007.

►Thanks to the shutout, Lawrence ranks second in scoring defense at 17.0 points per game. The Vikings are first in total defense at 262.0 yards per contest.

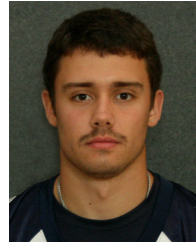

►Both of Lawrence's quarterbacks turned in great games against Maranatha Baptist. Starter Tanner Schuh (Appleton, Wis./North) played only the first half 18-for-27 passing for a career-high 244 yards and two touchdowns. Schuh also ran 11 times for a career-high 99 yards.

►The top target of the QBs was senior Taylor Mandich (Green Bay, Wis./Southwest), who had a career-high 181 receiving yards and matched his career high with seven catches. He also had a career-long 70-yard reception, which went for a touchdown.

Taylor Mandich

►Lawrence quarterbacks completed passes to nine different receivers in the win over Maranatha.

►Lawrence ranks second in the conference in scoring offense at 32.5 points per contest. The Vikings are second in total offense at 445.0 yards per game.

►Lawrence posted 656 yards of offense in the win over Maranatha Baptist. That is the highest total since Lawrence posted the same total, 656, in a 62-42 win at Knox on Sept. 10, 2011.

►Sophomore kicker Patrick O'Mahoney (Evanston, Ill./Evanston Township) claimed Midwest Conference Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the wake of the victory over Maranatha Baptist. O'Mahoney tied the Lawrence record for extra points made (8) and attempted (8). He also booted a 21-yard field goal.

Prairie Fire Update

►Knox's record fell to 1-1 after a 40-14 nonconference loss at Carleton on Sept. 13.

The Knights scored the first 28 points of the game and led 28-0 at the half. Knox cut the edge to 28-7 early in the fourth quarter, but Carleton picked up a safety and a field goal on the next two series to seal the win. Chris Madden ran 12 times for 117 yards and three touchdowns to pace Carleton. Knox was limited to just 207 yards of offense.

►Knox is going through a big transition in its offense after the graduation losses of running back Derek Mortensen and quarterback Luke Oosterbaan. Mortensen was one of the Midwest Conference's top running backs and rushed for 1,380 yards and a 4.6-yard average last season while scoring 13 touchdowns on the ground. Oosterbaan completed 47.2 percent of his passes for 1,230 yards and seven TDs last season.

►The top runner for Knox this season is Terry White, who has 35 carries for 137 yards and a touchdown. He's averaging 3.9 yards per carry.

►The new starting quarterback for the Prairie Fire is Matt McCaffrey, who has completed 28-of-47 passes for 321 yards, four touchdowns and four interceptions. He's completing 59.6 percent of his passes.

►Ilir Emini has returned as Knox's top receiver. He has 15 catches for 139 yards and a touchdown.

►Knox ranks ninth in the league in scoring offense at 20.0 points per game. The Prairie Fire is ninth in total offense, averaging 278.0 yards per contest.

►The top tacklers for the Prairie Fire are senior defensive back Will Ruzicka and senior linebacker Nick Bock. Ruzicka has a team-best 16 tackles. Bock is second on the squad with 11 tackles and is tops with 2.0 tackles for loss.

►Defensive back Chaz Benton paces the team with six passes defensed, and Ruzicka is second on the team with four.

►Knox is eighth in the Midwest Conference in scoring defense at 31.5 points per game. Knox ranks fourth in the league in total defense at 304.5 yards per contest.

2014 Game Recaps

September 6

Rockford 34, Lawrence 6

ROCKFORD, Ill.

— The Lawrence University football team dug itself a big hole early, and Rockford University pulled away late for a 34-6 nonconference victory at Sam Greeley Field.

The Regents (1-0) surged to a 19-0 lead just 11 minutes into the game, and Rockford then put up a pair of touchdowns in a 16-second span in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

Quarterback Andrew Stochl and receiver Milton Phillips did most of the damage for the Regents. Stochl completed 17-of-27 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns. Phillips caught five passes for 127 yards and a score.

Lawrence (0-1) struggled on offense and had just 234 total yards. Rockford rolled up 448 yards of offense.

After two touchdown passes from Stochl and a scoring run from Pete Berry put the Regents up early, Lawrence cut the deficit to 19-6. Freshman Alic Riedel blocked Cody Casazza's punt to give Lawrence the ball at the Rockford 21-yard line. Lawrence scored eight plays later on Tanner Schuh's two-yard run.

Lawrence was driving again in the final minutes of the first half, but Schuh was intercepted in the Rockford end zone to end the threat.

The score remained the same until Rockford drove 73 yards in eight plays midway through the fourth quarter. Stochl hit Dane Kirk with a 22-yard scoring pass for a 27-6 lead with 8:59 left.

On the next play from scrimmage, Pascal Sylla intercepted Lawrence backup quarterback Chance Byrd and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown and a 34-6 lead.

Schuh finished 10-of-29 passing for 103 yards. Byrd was 6-for-16 passing for 68 yards and two interceptions.

Byrd led the team with seven carries for 34 yards, and Dan Rothbauer, Taylor Mandich and Tyler Lueck all had four catches apiece for the Vikings.

September 13

Lawrence 59, Maranatha Baptist 0

APPLETON, Wis.

— The Lawrence University football team routed Maranatha Baptist University 59-0 in a nonconference game at the Banta Bowl.

Lawrence quarterback Tanner Schuh played only the first half but ran for 99 yards and a touchdown and threw for 244 and two touchdowns as the Vikings (1-1) bolted a 28-0 lead at the half. Backup quarterback Chance Byrd completed 11 of 15 passes for 152 yards and two touchdowns and ran 11 times for 46 yards and a score.

Taylor Mandich grabbed seven passes for 181 yards and three touchdowns, including a 70-yard scoring pass in the first half. Dalton Sendelbach added 14 carries for 89 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings. Lawrence kicker Patrick O'Mahoney also tied the school record of Cody Robel and Kraig Krueger with eight extra points.

The Lawrence defense, which held Maranatha to just 76 yards, recorded its first shutout since beating Ripon College 26-0 in 1991. It was a team effort on defense with Tony Harth leading the way with six tackles, including a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Lawrence limited Maranatha (0-2) to 20 carries for a minus-32 yards on the ground.

The Vikings also intercepted five passes, one each by Alic Riedel, Dan Taylor, Nick Ulloa, Jake Walker and defensive end Gabor Bukszar.

Lawrence scored touchdowns on its first three possessions and four of its first five. Trevor Spina had a four-yard run for the first touchdown, and Schuh scored from three yards out on the next drive for a 14-0 lead.

After Mandich had his 55-yard touchdown catch called back due to a penalty, he hooked up with Schuh on a 70-yard scoring pass on the next play for a 21-0 lead. Mandich then caught a 23-yard scoring pass with 4:51 left in the second quarter to put the Vikings up 28-0.

Lawrence got a 21-yard field goal from O'Mahoney to make it 31-0 midway through the third quarter. The Vikings then picked up touchdowns on four of their next five possessions to complete the scoring. Byrd connected with Cole Erickson on an 11-yard touchdown pass and then hit Mandich from 21 yards out to push the lead to 45-0 after three quarters. Byrd had a 19-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter, and Sendelbach finished the scoring with a 20-yard touchdown scamper.

The big bright spot for the Saber-cats was linebacker Ethan Kennon, who recorded 21 tackles, including 15 solo.
