

Learn with the Best!

The WBY Exposure Camp brings together top high school boys basketball players for three days of intense and spirited competition. Participating athletes receive individualized instruction from leading college basketball coaches and learn the advanced offensive and defensive skills required for competition at the collegiate level.

Improve Your Game

- Developmental play by position (point guards, wings, post) each day.
- Head-to-head competition and fundamentals against the best varsity players in Wisconsin.
- Camp staff includes some of the premier high school and college coaches in the Midwest.

Get Noticed

College basketball coaches from throughout the Midwest attend the camp as spectators to view the future prospects.

- Profiles on each camper are distributed to each coach.
- Each camper will have an opportunity to have his photo in the 2008-09 edition of the Wisconsin Basketball Yearbook, scheduled for release in mid-October.

Joel DePagter, Camp Director

Joel DePagter is finishing his first year as head coach at Lawrence University after serving as the assistant coach since 2003. Since DePagter's arrival at Lawrence, the men's basketball team has won three conference championships, a 2004 Elite 8 appearance, and a #1 national ranking in 2006. A 1998 graduate of Lawrence, DePagter led the Vikings to a 22-3 record, a 1997 Midwest Conference Championship, and the school's first-ever NCAA Division III Tournament appearance. He was named the 1997 conference Player of the Year and holds career records in assists and steals, while currently standing seventh on the all-time scoring list.

Lee Rabas, Assistant Camp Director

Lee Rabas is finishing his fourth year as an assistant with the Lawrence University men's basketball program. Rabas was the head coach at Appleton Xavier High School for seven seasons with an overall record of 103-56. His teams won two conference championships, and he was named the Post-Crescent Coach of the Year in 1998. Rabas, who also serves on the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association executive board, guided Xavier to a runner-up finish in the 1998 WISAA state tournament. Rabas earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.

Mark Miller, Camp Advisor

Mark Miller is editor of the Wisconsin Basketball Yearbook, a state-wide, nearly 400-page magazine that covers men's prep and college basketball. The WBY serves as a vital source of information for players, fans, high school coaches, parents, media, and college scouts. It also highlights the Top 50 Seniors, a section devoted to profiles of the best players in the state.
