THE SERIES

Lawrence holds a 10-1 lead in the series with the Blue Angels. The teams met for the first time in the 1976-77 season and last played in 2009-10 campaign. Lawrence has won the last two games with Mount Mary.

LAST MEETING

This was the latest home opener in Lawrence women's basketball history, but it turned out to be worth the wait for the Vikings.

Lawrence rolled to an 89-36 non-conference victory over Mount Mary College on Jan. 5, 2010, at Alexander Gymnasium.

Laura Aerts matched her career high with 21 points to pace Lawrence, which now has a modest two-game win streak. Aerts also had a career-high nine steals, which was one short of the school's game record. Aerts finished with seven rebounds and seven assists.

Katie Condon came off the bench to score 15 points for the Vikings. Kanesha Walker picked up a double-double with career highs of 14 points and 11 rebounds. Sam Nimmer scored a career-high 13 points, and Becca Anderson also had a career high with 10 points.

Jordan Osley led Mount Mary with 14 points, and Mary Holmberg added 10 points. Nunciata Gardner pulled down a game-high 14 rebounds for the Blue Angels.

Lawrence jumped on the Blue Angels early, going on a 15-0 run to take a 22-4 lead with 11:36 left in the first half. After a free throw broke a 5:31 scoreless drought for Mount Mary, Lawrence went on a 13-2 run and led 35-7 with 7:30 left in the opening half. The Vikings would lead 50-16 at the half, with Aerts scoring 17 points in the opening 20 minutes.

Mount Mary, which committed 34 turnovers, never got closer than 30 points early in the second half, and the Vikings had expanded their lead to 49 at the 11:56 mark of the second half. The 53-point final margin was Lawrence's largest lead of the game.

The 53-point win is Lawrence's largest margin of victory since the Vikings beat Finlandia University by 49 (98-49) on Dec. 12, 2005. The 36 points matches the fewest scored by a Lawrence opponent in recent memory. The Vikings held Beloit College to 36 points in a victory on Feb. 8, 2006.

LAST GAME

Lawrence missed a game-tying 3-pointer at the buzzer, and Eureka hung on for a 51-48 nonconference victory in the season opener last Saturday at Alexander Gymnasium.

Kelsey Shoemake posted a double-double for Eureka with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Andrea Wilkinson had her first career double-double for the Vikings with 10 points and 12 rebounds. Kanae Nishitani led Lawrence and all scorers with 17 points and also picked up a team-high three steals.

Eureka led by as many as seven points in the first half, but the Vikings rallied early in the second half to tie the game at 25-25. The teams swapped the lead, and Lawrence took its final lead at 41-40 on Katie Schumacher's layup with 4:54 left.

The Red Devils led by three at 46-43 when Nishitani was whistled for a foul against Caty Eeten. Eeten missed both free throws, but Lawrence was called for another foul boxing out Eeten. Given another chance, she made both free throws to give the Red Devils a 48-43 lead with 56 seconds left.

Nishitani drove to the basket, scored and was fouled. She converted the three-point play to cut the margin to 48-46. After Jenna Brooks converted 1 of 2 free throws, Patsy Kealey hit a driving layup to cut the margin to 49-48 with 28 seconds left.

Brooks was fouled again and converted both free throws with eight seconds left to put the Red Devils up 51-48. The Vikings broke the Eureka press and found an open Alex Deshler in the corner, but her 3-pointer was off the mark at the buzzer.

VIKINGS UPDATE

▶With the loss to Eureka, Lawrence is 16-22 in season openers. Lawrence has not won a season-opening game since defeating Clarkson 73-45 to start the 2007-08 campaign.

▶Lawrence got a solid debut from freshman guard Kanae Nishitani (Kanagawa, Japan/Yamate Gakuin). Nishitani, a student attending Lawrence as part of a study abroad partnership with Waseda University, scored 17 points, grabbed four rebounds, had three steals and one assist.

Kanae Nishitani

▶Sophomore forward Andrea Wilkinson (Racine, Wis./Lutheran) jumped right from volleyball season into basketball. With less than two weeks of practice under her belt, Wilkinson went out and turned in her first career double-double in the season opener. Wilkinson scored 10 points and grabbed 12 rebounds against Eureka. Those were both career highs for Wilkinson, who surpassed her previous bests of seven points at Illinois College last season and seven rebounds at home vs. Beloit last season. Wilkinson played in all but one match during the recent volleyball season and averaged 1.08 kills per set.

Andrea Wilkinson

▶Lawrence played without senior guard Amber Lisowe (Chilton, Wis./Fond du Lac Springs) in the opener due to injury. Lisowe averaged a team-high 13.9 points per game a season ago.

►Turnovers have been a huge problem for the Vikings over the past two seasons, but Lawrence did a better job handling the ball in the season opener. Lawrence had 19 turnovers against Eureka, and while that isn't ideal, it is better than the 25.1 turnovers per game the team averaged last season. Lawrence had just five games last season in which it had fewer than 20 turnovers.

►Another bright spot in the opener was the job the Vikings did on the glass. Lawrence outrebounded the Eureka 53-44 and gave up just nine offensive rebounds. Lawrence grabbed 18 caroms on the offensive end and converted that into 14 second-chance points.

►Eureka really won the game at the foul line this past Saturday. The Red Devils went 14-for-23 from the stripe, while Lawrence shot just 10 free throws and made seven.

SCOUTING MOUNT MARY

►Mount Mary is looking for its first victory after a rough 104-36 loss at Wisconsin Lutheran on Tuesday night. Emily Barker led Mount Mary with 12 points, and five players scored in double figures for Wisconsin Lutheran. The Warriors scored the game's first 10 points and bolted to a 51-12 lead at the half.

►Mount Mary is coached by first-year mentor Marc Heidorf. He should be a familiar face to Lawrence fans. Heidorf

Eureka 51, Lawrence 48

APPLETON, Wis.

— The Lawrence University women's basketball team missed a game-tying 3-pointer at the buzzer, and Eureka College hung on for a 51-48 nonconference victory in the season opener at Alexander Gymnasium.

Kelsey Shoemake posted a double-double for Eureka (1-0) with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Andrea Wilkinson had her first career double-double for the Vikings (0-1) with 10 points and 12 rebounds. Kanae Nishitani led Lawrence and all scorers with 17 points and also picked up a team-high three steals.

Eureka led by as many as seven points in the first half, but the Vikings rallied early in the second half to tie the game at 25-25. The teams swapped the lead, and Lawrence took its final lead at 41-40 on Katie Schumacher's layup with 4:54 left.

The Red Devils led by three at 46-43 when Nishitani was whistled for a foul against Caty Eeten. Eeten missed both free throws, but Lawrence was called for another foul boxing out Eeten. Given another chance, she made both free throws to give the Red Devils a 48-43 lead with 56 seconds left.

Nishitani drove to the basket, scored and was fouled. She converted the three-point play to cut the margin to 48-46. After Jenna Brooks converted 1 of 2 free throws, Patsy Kealey hit a driving layup to cut the margin to 49-48 with 28 seconds left.

Brooks was fouled again and converted both free throws with eight seconds left to put the Red Devils up 51-48. The Vikings broke the Eureka press and found an open Alex Deshler in the corner, but her 3-pointer was off the mark at the buzzer.
